Short Stack

SHORT STACK -RUBY RED

This song is pretty simple once you get the hang of it :)

Capo 1

From the second floor you seemed so far away.
And as the raindrops kissed my broken lips, i begged that you would stay.
But you know honesty you mean to me the weather.
The stage was yours last time, but this time, i found someone better.
Ruby Red.
She wants the world instead.
Ruby Red.
She wants the world instead.

And from the ice caps we could see the sea below.
As the waves collided side to side that swayed us to and fro.
We were wild eyed like fireflies together.
We sunk those chemicals like wolves and we were flying feathers.
Ruby Red.
She wants the world instead.
Ruby Red.
She wants the world instead.

CHORUS-

Singing. Nothings gonna stand in our way.

C G D
