

Cavalier
Shovels & Rope

This is my first tab, and it's all by ear but I'm pretty sure it's correct.

No capo

Intro: C

C

She was a livewire, she was stuck in the past

F

G

I was holding the middle, you was waking up fast

C

It was four in the morning, she was holding on tight

F

G

to a David Bowie look a like circa '85

C

Now he's turning up his amplifier, staring at his toes

F

G

Even when he's looking at you he's still looking down his nose

C

Sounds like surf music maybe more than just a little

F

G

but to me it's just another form of California dribble

G

the top and bottom look straight to me but shaky in the middle

C

Am

Well there's something to be learned here

F

G

Though it may seem a little insincere

C

Am

Like a cruel clown grinning ear to ear

F

G

You're a country singer I'm a cavalier

C

Well I wanna know the whole story over

F

Where you came from, where you going,

G

However long it takes to know you

C

With your heavy metal heartbeat, Salty but you seem sweet

F

G

Tippy toes on both feet, Rockin to the teen beat

C

Well, ice cream, soda pop, bourbon on top

F

G

Some people call it rock and roll and some people call it pop

C

Some call it country music every time you use a fiddle

F

G

How am I supposed to know if that s a fact or just a riddle?

G

Too tight around the edges, leave a little room to wiggle.

C

Am

Well there s something to be learned here

F

G

Though it may seem a little insincere

C

Am

Like a cruel clown grinning ear to ear

F

G

You re a country singer I m a cavalier

Oh oo oh oo oh (x8) (same chord progression as chorus)

C

Am

Well there s something to be learned here

F

G

Though it may seem a little insincere

C

Am

Like a cruel clown grinning ear to ear

F

G

You re a psycho killer, I m a cavalier
