Forsaken Blues by Shovels and Rope

Intro: G for 1 measure

D
Well did you come to here to make an account

G
Come here to make renown on my abuses

D D7 G
Will you bare instead the devastated weight of my misuses

C G C Em
Did you ever load a gun and point it at someone

C G Em C
A bond to never be undone

G D G
Well, you re wrong you re wrong now

D
Well forgive me my disservice

G
If my efforts were in earnest I was lying

D
And it was thievery and fornication

D7 G
That delivered me from inclination satisfying

C G
Never did the sun go down

C Em
Without another one coming around

C G Em C
Illuminate what could not be found

G D G
You re wrong you re wrong now

Em G D
You re wroooooonnnnnng (X 3) Now

D
Well my heart was quick to harden

G
When I was kicked out of the garden was I forsaken?

Em
I was washed with a load of shame

G
With only myself to blame was I mistaken

C G
Baby, you called my bluff

C Em
I was never good enough

C G Em C

I was made from lazy weaker stuff,

G D Em C
well you re wrong, you re wrong, you re wrong, You re wrong,

G D G
You re wrong, You re wrong now
