Bm - Em - D - C#

Bm A G
Ten feet tall, better walk it back down

Despite the great duress
Always get off, cause damn it,
It s the only surefire way to win
Your poison doesn t hurt me no, tender wine disguised in a milk bath, bad TV show.
I m here to celebrate the one below
Last I heard from good god above
Was the slap on my ass
by a lipstick-kissed elbow glove!

I came down like water
For the age of solar love
And hail to the father
Kiss your sons and daughters
Goodbye, goodbye
Steam scared and roller
Ladytron controller
Ten feet tall, better walk it back down
