Pumpkin Eyes by Silver Scooter - <http://www.peakaboorecords.com/artist.aspx?id=4>

This song is amazing and really easing once you get the strum pattern. If you listen to it, it's pretty simple to pick up, and it's the same through the whole song.

The chords are thus:

G - 320033

Em/G - 022033

Cadd9 - 032033

A/G - 002233

I wasn't quite sure what to call them, but there you are.
Here are the lyrics:

When you walk away,
Take my hand today.
Think of what you've been dying to,
been dying to, been dying to say.
Pumpkin Eyes, you are a dream,
Look away from everything.
Seems like what you wanted
Isn't what you wanted anyway.

Later on, we're on the porch,
Singing horse stories to ghosts.
Think of what you wanted.
Been dying to say, dying to say.
Pumpkin Eyes, we're on the swings,
Keep away from everything.
Seems like what you wanted fell on over me.

Pumpkin Eyes, you are a dream.
Pumpkin Eyes, you are a dream.
Seems like what you wanted
Isn't what you wanted anyway.
Pumpkin Eyes, you are a dream.
Keep away from everything.
Seems like what you wanted
Isn't what you wanted anyway.

(Pumpkin Eyes...Pumpkin Eyes...Pumpkin Eyes...Pumpkin Eyes...)
(Seems like what you wanted...Seems like what you wanted isn't what you wanted anyway...)
