

Paper Hearts
Silver Trees

[Verse 1]

C Am
Here s the story, here we are
G
Falling forward into parts
F C
Playing something into nothing till we know it â€™s not ours
Am
All we have is something simple
G
All we know is what s been gone
F
Going into some dramatic, static pause

[Pre-chorus]

Am F
Whoever can leave here first,
C
Wherever I see you hurts,
G
Whatever I need to do

[Chorus]

C G
We try to tell a story,
Am F C
We write each other into our lives,
G Am F
But after all it s all just as thin as paper hearts

[Verse 2]

C Am
Take the sense of false direction
C
Take the words out of my head
G
Always hurt under protection
F C
Always cut where I don t let in
Am
Oh my mind, just try on patience
G
Oh my heart, just lead the way
C F Am G
All my life has been a silent fight to be ok

[Chorus]

C                 G
 We try             to tell a story,
Am               F                                 C
 We write         each other into         our lives,
G                 Am                                 F
 But after all it s all just as thin as paper hearts

[Interlude]

(moves in same way as chorus)

C G Am F x2

[Chorus]

C                 G
 We try             to tell a story,
Am               F                                 C
 We write         each other into         our lives,
G                 Am                                 F
 But after all it s all just as thin as paper

[Chorus]

C                 G
 We try             to tell a story,
Am               F                                 C
 We write         each other into         our lives,
G                 Am                                 F                                 C***
 But after all it s all just as thin as paper hearts
