All across the town, all across the night
Everybody s driving with full headlights
Black or white turn it on, face the new religion
Everybody s sitting round watching television!

I m up and down the Westway, in an out the lights
 What a great traffic system - it s so bright
 I can t think of a better way to spend the night
 Then speeding around underneath the yellow lights

Now I m in the subway and I m looking for the flat
 This one leads to this block, this one leads to that
 The wind howls through the empty blocks looking for a home
 I run through the empty stone because I m all alone
