Lyrics:

And drown you out
And left you with the sounds
We ll spoil goodnights
Replacing lullabies

How could they never notice
What they planted in your spades
I see you laughing in a picture
But I know what s out of frame

You barely cried
But you made it out alive
And I m so proud
That you re in my hands now

If we grew up together
You would find it s not the same
I want to jump inside that picture
And show you what you d gain (became?)

If we can stay here long enough
We can play with Bloody Mary
Say her name into the dark
Activate our nerve endings

If we can stay here long enough
We can play with Bloody Mary
And she can chase us through the dark
Activate our nerve endings

If we stay

I ll never let them get closer
Or shower you with any blame
Now we re dancing in our own picture
Where the rules have changed

If we can stay here long enough
We can play with Bloody Mary
Say her name into the dark
Activate our nerve endings

If we can stay here long enough
We can play with Bloody Mary
And she can chase us through the dark
Activate our nerve endings

And stay
