

Dots And Dashes (Enough Already)
Silversun Pickups

Em A5
So you want to mess with me? Caught me in a silent scream
C
Heat filling up my cheeks, not exactly what you think
Em A5
See you in the room next door, your feet float above the floor
Dress torn above your knees like you've owned it for centuries

Em A5
Dots and dashes on the wall, you tell me about the falls
C
Of kingdoms and champions you've seen a thousand times before
Em A5
I show you my private things like my scrapbook of fantasies
You say I look a little too green for saving

Em D
I'm already bored, I'm already wise, I'm already worn
I'm already wondering what am I?
Am C
I'm already rough, I'm already lean
I'm already wanting to be obscene
Em D
I'm already cursed, I'm already dry
I'm already wondering what am I?
Am C
I've already learned a bit of sin
Enough already let me in

C Bm D C
We signal in a moon beam, I beg you to follow me
Bm D C
You say that I'll be surprised at the codes in the sunrise
Bm D C
But if I don't like what I see and my grip starts loosening
Bm D
The edge of the big reveal could be the end of the story

E5 A5 C E5
I just found innocence spinning around, spinning around
A5 C
Should I stand back and blow it all down, blow it all away?

Em D
I'm already bored, I'm already wise, I'm already worn

I m already wondering what am I?

Am C

I m already rough, I m already lean

I m already wanting to be obscene

Em D

I m already cursed, I m already dry

I m already wondering what am I?

Am C

I ve already learned a bit of sin

Enough already let me in

C Bm D C

We signal in a moon beam, I beg you to follow me

Bm D C

You say that I ll be surprised at the codes in the sunrise

Bm D C

But if I don?t like what I see and my grip starts loosening

Bm D

The edge of the big reveal could be the end of the story
