

The Sun Is Burning
Simon & Garfunkel

[Intro]

G C D G C G

[Verse 1]

G C G
The sun is burning in the sky
C D
Strands of clouds go slowly drifting by
G D/F# Em
In the park, the lazy bees
C
Are droning in the flowers among the trees
G C G
And the sun burns in the sky

[Verse 2]

G C G
Now the sun is in the west
C D
Little kids go home to take their rest
G D/F# Em
And the couples in the park
C
Are holding hands and waiting for the dark
G C G
And the sun is in the west

[Verse 3]

G C G
Now the sun is sinking low
C D
Children play and know it s time to go
G D/F# Em
High above, a spot appears
C
A little blossom blooms and then draws near
G C G
And the sun is sinking low

[Verse 4]

G C G
Now the sun has come to earth
C D
Shrouded in a mushroom cloud of death
G D/F# Em
Death comes in a blinding flash
C

Of hellish heat and leaves a smear of ash

G C G

And the sun has come to earth

[Verse 5]

G C G

Now the sun has disappeared

C D

All is darkness anger pain and fear

G D/F# Em

Twisted, sightless wrecks of men

C

Go groping on their knees and cry in pain

G C D

And the sun has disappeared
