

From fisherman to fish to butcher, the struggle is never ending

C/G

F

G

F

You can put your life down on paper but it s not the same as swimming

C/G

Em

F

I dropped a hint and you were kind enough to retrieve it

F

C/G

Em

F

You asked me where the trouble was and you were sweet enough to believe it

G

F*

But it was such a sad lie I had to whisper

C/G

F

C/G

What happed to Blake and Eric, Douglas, Phil and Amanda?

C/G

F

G

F

What happed to Jennifer the Great, who loved me before anyone?

C/G

Em

F

They re flying into the ground or walking high around my city

C/G

Em

F

While my head is just some town you wouldn t want to visit

G

F*

It s crowded and the people all look ghostly

C/G

F

C/G

Fool s gold on Main St., shuffling through orphan trash

C/G

F

G

The birds search for the sun at their feet in every crumb of shattered glass

F

C/G

Em

F

I slipped on holy blinders as if I could turn my body in

C/G

Em

F

If I m guilty when I despair, will hope make me innocent again

G

F*

Or will it only get me through this winter?

C/G

F

C/G

There are neon invitations where shameless billboards babble

F

G

You belong to nothing at all now since your pockets have unraveled

F

C/G

Em

F

Your soul is just a drop of the dream we collected with pans in the stream

C/G

Em

F

The streets of heaven are lined with it and the streets of heaven are clean

G

F*

But everything you ll ever touch is dirty

Keep on playing the F to C/G chord progression and end on C/G