Simone Felice - Charade

capo 2nd

C F

C F C
i change the gas prize sign, in the early morning

C F C
stand in the cold head lights in a one piece jumpsuite with a logo on it

F C
you make a shovel from a shell

F C
its the qickest way to dig to hell

Am G
its right beside the tag that bears my name

C
what a charade

Am
what a charade

F C
every morning i get up, and pull that jumper on my friend

F C
fake a smile and squeeze that pump and make a sneaky puff from mary jane

Am G
try to kill them voices in my brain

C
what a charade

Am
what a charade

F G ehhhhhh ahhhhh

C
what a charade

C F C
you got the bluest eyes you love rodeos

C F C
you dressed to kill tonight cant help but thinking bout your daughter when

F C
you hear a song inside a shell

F C
when you hear the ringing of a bell

Am G
swear to god you ll get her back one day

C
what a charade

Am
what a charade

F C
every morning you get up and to work in the bar

F C
but who among them hopped up boys got any clue what you really are

Am G
all they know is that tag that bears your name

C
what a charade

Am
what a charade

F G
ehhhhhh ahhhhh

C
what a charade

(Harp solo)

Am F

Em C

Em C

Am G

G7 F C
but when we make love youre eyes roll back

F C
and everything in the room turns black

F C F C
maybe the future is painted black if tommorrow turns to black

F C (and so on)

just meet me out on that golden step and everything will be golden then and Ill
run my

hand through your golden hair

Ill run my hand through your golden hair, Ill run my hand through your golden hair, Ill

run my hand through your golden hair
