      Em                C#m
little orphans in the snow with nowhere to call a home

      G                D
start their singing...singing

      Em                C#m
waiting thru the summertime to thaw your heart in wintertime

      G                D
thats why their singing...singing

      Em      C      G      C
waiting for a sign to turn blood into wine

      Em                C      G      D
the sweet taste in your mouth turned bitter in its glass
Em C      G      D      Em C
G      D
israel... in israel   israel... in israel

      Em                C#m
shattered fragments of the past meet in veins on the stained glass

      G                D
like the lifeline in your palm

      Em                C#m
red and green reflects the scene of a long forgotten dream

      G                D
there were princes and there were kings

Em C#m
now hidden in disguise, cheap wrappings of lies
G D
keep your heart alive with a song from inside

BRIDGE

Em C#m
even tho we re all alone we are never on our own
G D
when we,re singing...singing
Em C G D
ooohh ooohh TWICE
Em C#m
theres a man whos looking in and he smiles a toothless grin
G D
because hes singing ...singing
Em C#m
some people shine with glee but their song is jealousy
G D
their hate is clanging...maddening
Em C G D
in israel will they sing happy noel
