          Dm                                  Bm
little orphans in the snow with nowhere to call a home
                  F                  C
start their singing...singing
          Dm                                  Bm
waiting thru the summertime to thaw your heart in wintertime
                  F                  C
thats why their singing...singing

          Dm      Bb                  F          Bb waiting for a sign to turn blood into wine Dm                          Bb          F                  C
the sweet taste in your mouth turned bitter in its glass
Dm Bb      F      C      Dm Bb
F      C
israel... in israel  israel... in israel

          Dm                                  Bm
shattered fragments of the past meet in veins on the stained glass
          F                  C
like the lifeline in your palm
          Dm                                  Bm
red and green reflects the scene of a long forgotten dream
          F                                  C
there were princes and there were kings

Dm Bm
now hidden in disguise, cheap wrappings of lies F C
keep your heart alive with a song from inside

BRIDGE

Dm Bm
even tho we re all alone we are never on our own
F C
when we,re singing...singing
Dm Bb F C
ooohh ooohh TWICE
Dm Bm
theres a man whos looking in and he smiles a toothless grin
F C
because hes singing ...singing
Dm Bm
some people shine with glee but their song is jealousy
F C
their hate is clanging...maddening
Dm Bb F C
in israel will they sing happy noel
