F#m                      Ebm
little orphans in the snow with nowhere to call a home
      A      E
start their singing...singing
      F#m                      Ebm
waiting thru the summertime to thaw your heart in wintertime
      A      E
thats why their singing...singing

      F#m      D      A      D
waiting for a sign to turn blood into wine
      F#m      D      A      E
the sweet taste in your mouth turned bitter in its glass
F#m D      A      E      F#m D
A      E
israel... in israel   israel... in israel

      F#m                      Ebm
shattered fragments of the past meet in veins on the stained glass
      A      E
like the lifeline in your palm
      F#m                      Ebm
red and green reflects the scene of a long forgotten dream
      A      E
there were princes and there were kings

F#m Ebm
now hidden in disguise, cheap wrappings of lies
A E
keep your heart alive with a song from inside

BRIDGE

F#m Ebm
even tho we re all alone we are never on our own
A E
when we,re singing...singing
F#m D A E
ooohh ooohh TWICE
F#m Ebm
theres a man whos looking in and he smiles a toothless grin
A E
because hes singing ...singing
F#m Ebm
some people shine with glee but their song is jealousy
A E
their hate is clanging...maddening
F#m D A E
in israel will they sing happy noel
