The Saddest Song (Not Coming Home) - Sister Hazel

Tabbed by: myke772

Tuning: Standard

C G
The saddest song I ever heard
Am G F
Was the last song I wrote down for you
C G
It was the saddest thing you ve ever seen
Am G F
Me in my chair and you gone
C G
But I still tried to sing it
Am G F
In case you walked back through my door
C G
And with tears in my eyes
Am G
And choke in my throat
F
I held hope

C G
Because we had some good things
Am G F
And we had some broken things, I know
C G
I know that we had some old things
Am G F
But damn, they were our things, I know
G F
But I know it could never be different
G F
But I wanted to say that I miss you
C G Am Am F
But you re not coming home

C G Am Am F

C G
The hardest thing I ve ever done
Am G F

Was sit down and tell you my truth

C

G

It was the hardest thing to look at you

Am

G

F

Look at you and tell you my truth

C

G

But I still had to tell it

Am

G

My hope wrapped in faith

F

That you d stay

C

G

And my prayers screamed to praying

Am

G

F

For you but you went away

C

G

Because we had some good things

Am

G

F

And we had some broken things, I know

C

G

I know that we had some old things

Am

G

F

But damn, they were our things, I know

G

F

But I know it could never be different

G

F

But I wanted to say that I miss you

Am G F

But you re not coming home

Am G F

You re not coming home

Am G F

You re not coming home

G

noooo

C

G

Because we had some good things

Am

G

F

And we had some broken things, I know

C

G

I know that we had some old things

Am

G

F

But damn, they were our things, I know

G

F

But I know I could never be different

G

F

But I wanted to say that I love you

C G Am G

But your not coming home

F

Not coming home
