Don't Blame Yourself Sixpence None The Richer

You ll find a place

G

F

Em Sister dear of many years Not by blood but sweat and tears You see it playing out, the bonds are Growing tight on you Em Never wrong and never right You have the goods and lose the fight He s got to pick it up \mathbf{Em} He s got to make it right with you G D C С G So don t blame yourself, (don t blame yourself) G D C C There is nothing here to make you blame yourself Sister dear of all the times you thought the world would fall in line But saw it coming down to put you in a different place D C Every day and every night I wanna help you win the fight I know you re gonna find a place where you can make it new GDC C G So don t blame yourself, (don t blame yourself) G D C C G There is nothing here to make you blame yourself GDC C G So don t blame yourself, (don t blame yourself) G D C There is nothing here to make you blame yourself Sister dear it s alright if you do

I believe in you
G D C G Em