I know I m just a country girl I hadn t seen much of the world
Eb F Bb F
Today my bus pulled out of old Kentucky
Bb F Bb F
My daddy waved and mama cried and I felt all choked up inside
Eb F Bb
Cause I was leavin everyone that loved me.
F F
The first I saw of city ways went against how I was raised
Eb Bb
This country girl was really out of place
F F
And I was set to go back home but I was broke and all alone
Eb Bb
And I couldn t find another friendly face.

But I didn t have the bus fare to Kentucky
F Bb
Or this city would have seen the last of me
D Gm
I didn t have the bus fare to Kentucky
And that old Grey Dog won t let me ride for free.

I met a boy from Tennessee and I guess he reminded me
Eb F Bb F
Of someone that I knew in old Kentucky
Bb F Bb F

It was good to have a friend and it was good to laugh with him

And it was good to hear him say he loved me. F I never thought he d do me wrong so I gladly went along I loved him more than any man I ve known And after he had all his fun he told me that our love was done And then he left this country girl alone. But I didn t have the bus fare to Kentucky Or this city would have seen the last of me I didn t have the bus fare to Kentucky And that old Grey Dog won t let me ride for free. I can t afford to go first class so I ll make it the best I can Anything to get my feet on that good Kentucky land My thumb is in the air and my suitcase by my side Won t somebody give this poor old country girl a ride. Bb Kentucky I m a comin home I ll never leave you anymore Kentucky I don t know why I ever strayed Eb Вb Kentucky your bluegrass bridges and your valleys call to me Kentucky I m comin home to stay

Kentucky I m a comin home I ll never leave you anymore...
