F A F
As the day breaks through the doorway
 A G F
and i m still chained to this house
 A F
but you call me and I follow
 A G F
and act like i m so proud
 A F
still reading the sidewalk
 A G F
and it smells like morning news
 A F
and I don t know why I still can t A G C
seem to pull away from you live another

A G F A

day to feed on everything you are...

F A - G

and you are

When the day sleeps and the sunshine

no longer burns my eyes and the sound of your footsteps is the only thing that lies between me and the feeling that life fills these four walls that cage me completely

just waiting on your call

F A

Watch the window

F A - G

and you are

I run for you

a fall so hard

my secrets are buried in the yard
