Falling inside, falling inside ---the black, ----black, -----black, -----black

(I usually just play the verse chords here... sooo.... Em, C, G, D and I usually play it twice, very loudly to emphasize the power that i cant really tab on an acoustic guitar - and on the last D, i hold it out an extra measure and add in a suspension, so it s more like a Dsus2 chord :D)

[Chorus:]

C

Falling in the black

G

Slipping through the cracks

Em D

Falling to the depths can I ever go back

C G

Dreaming of the way it used to be

Em D

Can you hear me?

C

Falling in the black

G

Slipping through the cracks

Em D

Falling to the depths can I ever go back

C G (this would be where i put Em, but this line merges with the next one)

Falling inside the black

Em D

Can you hear me?

C G (same as above)

Falling inside the black

Em D

Can you hear me?

C G (yes, it just keeps repeating...)

Falling inside the black

Em D

Can you hear me?

C

Falling inside

G Em D

Falling inside, falling inside

Em
