Always pushing us apart nothing left but scars fight after fight

The space between
Our calm and rage
started growing shorter , disappearing slowly day after day

[Pre-Chorus]
Bm   Asus/C#   Dsus2   D
I was sitting there waiting in my room for you
Bm   Asus/C#   Dsus2
You were waiting for me too
D(strum)
And it makes me wonder

[Chorus]
Asus2
The older I get
E
Will I get over it
Bm   Asus/C#
It s been way too long for the times we missed
Dsus2
I didn t know then it would hurt like this but I think
Asus2
The older I get
E
Maybe I ll get over it
Bm   Asus/C#
It s been way too long for the times we missed
D
I can t believe it still hurts like this

[Verse2]
The time between
Those cutting words
Built up our defenses never made no sense it just made me hurt
Do you believe
That time heals all wounds
It started getting better but it s easy not to fight when I m not with you

Pre-Chorus+Chorus(1x)

Bridge
F#   D
What was I waiting for Asus2
I should ve taken less and given you more

I should ve weathered the storm

I need to say so bad
