Little loves loving, all little boys and girls

F#                B
Children are singing
          F#                                B
The truths that they re bringing
F#                B                C#                F#
Freedom is ringing all round the world

E        B                C#        F#
Come let us meet them
E B E        B                C#        F#
Ah, yes, we will greet them

F#                B
Little hands clapping
F#                B
Children are caring
F#                B                C#                F#
Piper is calling all over the world

F#                B
Out in the street
          F#                                B
The sick that you meet
F#                B                C#                F#
How many friends do you call your own?

E     B           C#   F#           E   B

Come let us meet them

E     B           C#     F#

Yes, we will greet them

F#                   B

Children are clapping

F#                   B

Children are caring

F#                   B                   C#                   F#

Children are shattering records and rules

F#                   B

Little hands caring

F#                   B

Little hands sharing

F#                                   B                                   C#                   F#

The old ones and the gold ones and the family jewels

E     B           C#   F#           E   B

Come let us meet them

E     B           C#     F#

F#                   B

Little hands clasping

F#                   B

Truth they are grasping

F#                   B                   C#                   F#

A world with no pain for one and all

F#                   B

And they are learning

F#                   B

Their souls, they are yearning

F#                   B                   C#                   F#

A nice place to play and no place to fall

E     B           C#     F#

Come let us meet them

E B E     B           C#     F#

Ah, yes, we will greet them
