I Blame Myself Sky Ferreira Α G Is it because you know my name D Α Or is it because you saw my face on the cover? Α G Either way it s all the same D It s like talking to a friend Α Who s trying to be your lover А G Underneath it all D Α I know it s not your fault Α G That you don t understand D Α I blame myself Α How could you know what it feels like To fight the hounds of hell? D Α You think you know me so well Α How could you know what it feels like G To be outside yourself? D Α You think you know me so well G Α I just want you to realize I blame, I blame myself D А Blame, blame, blame myself D Α G Α I blame, I blame, blame myself for my reputation. G Α I m just a face without a choice А A choice you d never like to guess what I think above the shoulders Α G 10 years old without a voice D I feel like nothing s really changed

A Now I m just a little older

AGUnderneath it allDAI know it s not your faultAGThat you don t understandDAI blame myself

Α

How could you know what it feels like G To fight the hounds of hell? р Α You think you know me so well Α How could you know what it feels like G To be outside yourself? D Α You think you know me so well G Α I just want you to realize I blame, I blame myself D Α Blame, blame, blame myself G D Α А I blame, I blame, blame myself for my reputation.

A G

Oh, I blame myself D A Oh, I blame myself A G Oh, I blame myself D A Oh, I blame myself

Α

How could you know what it feels like G To fight the hounds of hell? D A You think you know me so well A How could you know what it feels like G To be outside yourself? D A You think you know me so well A G

I just want you to realize I blame, I blame myself D Α Blame, blame, blame myself G D Α Α I blame, I blame, blame myself for my reputation. Α G Oh, I blame myself D Α Oh, I blame myself Α G

Oh, I blame myself D A

Oh, I blame myself