F C G Am

F C G (x2)

[Verse]

F C G
There s a handwritten note

Am F
Pressed in the door

C G
Of her screened-in porch

F C G
And I am sailing away

Am F
Recalling that day

C G
Miles from shore

F C G
She was still wearing white

Am F
And robin s egg blue

C G
Her grandmother s dress

F C G
And I left early this year

Am F
How I wound up here

C G
Is anyone s guess

F C G
When the new sights grow old

Am F
And I start to feel cold

G
I ll sail home again

[Verse]

C G
Goodbye Brielle

Dm F
Only whispers can tell

C G
Of the sweet dreams that we knew so well

Dm
I ll see you around

Our dear ocean town
The frozen days we set ablaze
Sent me drifting away
Like a butterfly, you floated by
And now you re alone
I wish I knew when
I ll be back again
So until then, I wish you well
My dear Brielle

[Verse]

Strolling over the sand
The cobblestone paths
That wind through the trees
And breathing the sweet forest air
Makes a bluebird aware
That she could be free

When the new sights grow old
And I start to feel cold
I ll sail home again

[Verse]

I ll see you around
Our dear ocean town
The frozen days we set ablaze
