

Bitter Beauty
Skydiggers

[Intro]

G

[Verse]

D

To recall this time

D

For you and I to come together

Am

C

To recognise

Just how badly our hearts were broken

[Verse]

G

D

All the flowers fade

Am

Now the stars pale

Am

As this bitter beauty

C

Grabs you by the tail

[Verse]

G

How long will you hesitate?

D

Halfway up the trail

Am

Yes, it's dark in the trees

C

And some wounds never heal

[Chorus]

G

And you're dreaming

D

With eyes wide open

Am

Your heart has spoken

C

For the first time

[Verse]

G

All the gun-for-hire poets

D

Who try to sing so loud

Am

Just to drown out the roar

C

As the bombs hit the ground

[Verse]

G

And the band is whistling Dixie

D

For the sentimental sake

Am

That s the sound and the fury

C

Of this new dark day

[Chorus]

G

And you re dreaming

D

With eyes wide open

Am

Your heart has spoken

C

For the first time

G

For the first time

[Instrumental]

G D Am C G

[Verse]

D

All the penny wishes

Am

And trickle-down schemes

Am

And Cracker Jack box prizes

C

Splitting at the seams

[Verse]

G

And you re stand in the doorway

D

Am

With your hair all in a mess

Am

You in all your glory

C

Wondering what comes next

[Chorus]

G

And you re dreaming

D

With eyes wide open

Am

Your heart has spoken

C

For the first time

[Chorus]

G

And you re dreaming

D

With eyes wide open

Am

Your heart has spoken

C

For the first time

[Chorus]

G

And you re dreaming

D

With eyes wide open

Am

Your heart has spoken

C

For the first time

G

For the first time
