C Dm G C Dm G C

[Verse]

Beneath it s snowy mantle cold and clean

The unborn grass lies waiting for its coat to turn to green

The snowbird sings the song he always sings
G C
And speaks to me of flowers that will bloom again in spring

[Verse]

When I was young my heart was young then, too
G C
And anything that it would tell me, that s the thing that I would do

But now I feel such emptiness within

For the thing that I want most in life s the thing that I can t win

[Verse]

Spread your tiny wings and fly away
G C
And take the snow back with you where it came from on that day

And if I could you know that I would fly away with you

The breeze along the river seems to say

That he ll only break my heart again should I decide to stay

So, little snowbird, take me with you when you go

To that land of gentle breezes where the peaceful waters flow
