And many times, Her eyes fought back the tears

And when her youthful world was about to fall in
Bb/C Bb/C
Each time her slender shoulders,
Bb/C Bb/C
Bore the weight of all her fears
Bb/C Bb/C
And a sorrow no one hears
Bb Am Gm D
Still rings in midnight silence in her ears

Bb C F
Let her cry for she s a lady
Bb A Dm
Let her dream for she s a child
Bb Am Gm
Let the rain fall down upon her
Bb/C Bb/C F
She s a free and gentle flower growing wild

Bb F
And if by chance I should hold her
Bb F
Let me hold her for a time
Bb F
But if allowed just one possession
Gm C F
I would pick her from the garden to be mine
