Dont want to go too soon

Roll me into the hole

Cover me up

Id like to know when its comin

E

Just a little time to prepare

When the voice of midnight comes

And into oblivion I stare

Theres no one waitin on me

No heaven or hell

The only vow I make

To live true and die well

And when Im gone, Im gone

Youll hear my name in the wind

Up to the great beyond

Back to where we begin

A

Will I hold onto the courage

C#m

To say goodbye to a life so dear

When the voice of midnight comes

Will grace overcome fear

Maybe an open field

C#m

Under the stars and moon

With the smell of the land and the air

And not some hospital room

Ill take my comfort in song

To the bittersweet end

And then Ill take my leave

Safe in the memory of friends

Id like to know when its comin

Just a little time to prepare

When the voice of midnight comes
