

Shrinkwrapped Sleeper

(verse)

E5

You closed your eyes and left me here
 C#5 A5 (A:--11/7)
and now I m jealous of your sleep

E5

I made some noise to wake you up
 C#5 A5 (A:--11/7)
it seems you ve drifted out of reach

E5

I m not sure if you meant what you said
 A5
but that s o.k.

 cos it still sounded good
 E5
when you said it any-way

A5
I m not sure where you are when I turn and stroke your face
 E5
you don t move anymore so it must be getting late

(As verse above)

I m not tired even now
I think I m glad to be awake
I ve met these fractured thoughts before they grin and wander round this place

E5

I ll get up all I find A5
is a paper that I hate real life disappears
 E5
and gets shrink wrapped in its place
I get up watch tv

A5
helps me feed my vicious streak
real life disappears

C#5
Then we watch the spooks on the news playing chess with the cynics

B5
hope you die in the arms of your shrinks in your clinics

E5

now its gone 5 a.m.

A5

We smile and plan our revenge

C#5

by the end the night has found it s true friends

B5

up all hours sketching a thousand great schemes

E5

hope I m not too tired to colour them in
