

Noble Aim
Sleeping at Last

This is such a good song and it is super easy to play! Capo on the first fret

C Am
Chances are we are the same;
C Am
Against the odds, against the grain
G F
We lean, like gardens toward light,
G F
But we wait, like evening for night,
C
Don't we?

C Am
Chances are we are alike;
C Am
Against what better judgement writes
G F
We ache like children for love,
G F
For a purpose worthy of
C
Such a noble aim,
G
Such a noble aim,
Am C
Such a noble aim as love.

Am
Chances are we bruise the same;
C Am
A family tree desperate for rain.
G F
A thirst only deserts know best.
G F
A hurt so at home in our chests.
G F
Call it stubbornness or bravery,
G F
To let our branches continue to reach,
C
With such a noble aim,
G
With such a noble aim,
Am

With such a noble aim

C

as love.

C

Am

Every broken branch and loosened leaf

G

C

That we've grown to ignore,

G

F

C

Is now a part of something greater than before.

Am

G

Every nest that rests upon our limbs,

C

Seeking shelter from the storms,

G

F

C

Is a purpose worth being broken for

G

F

Being broken for

F C G (4x)

C

Am

Chances are we are the same;

C

Am

Against the odds, against the grain

G

F

We lean, like gardens toward light.

G

F

We reach with all of our might

Am

C

For such a noble aim as love.
