[Chords]

F#m 244222
D xx0232
A x02220
E 022100

[Verse 1]

F#m D
I wrote this song for my father
A E F#m D A E
Sometimes I feel he never gave a damn about me
F#m D A
Though he raised me like he should
E F#m D A E
Did he understand me? No, no, I don't think so.

I wrote this song for my mother
She had to leave me, when I was younger
She said son, seek this life, and keep an open mind
But in my mind's eye...

[Chorus]

D F#m
I am free now
A E
Free to live without my fears
D F#m
I believe now
A E
There's a reason why I'm here.
F#m D A
It's to try and do good
E F#m D A E
It's to try and do better. (ooh oh)

[Verse 2]

Who will I be for my daughter?
This little baby, she means the world to me
Will I relive their mistakes?
Or do things the right way
For her sake.

[Chorus]

I am free now

Free to live without my fears
I believe now
There s a reason why I m here

D

Can I be a man?

F#m

One that understands

A

E

How to love more patiently

D F#m

I ll be free now

A E

I ll be free now.

[Bridge]

And we dream of the day, when our kids can play

E

In the streets with no fear of them being taken away

D

Fathers raise their sons with respect and love

E

Handle anger and pain with no need for no guns

A

If we hope to be free it takes you and me

E

To start over here and now

D

E

Cause this world is, the way it is, it s how we raise our kids.

F#m D A E

I wrote this song for my mother, wrote this song for our father

So hopefully we can come together

And hopefully make things a little better.

[Chorus]

D F#m A E

I am free now

Free to live without my fears

I believe now

There s a reason why I m here.

D

Can I be a man?

F#m

One that understands

E

How to love more patiently

D F#m

I ll be free now

A E

I ll be free now. (finish in D)
