

Sorry

Sleeping With Sirens

Well, since there s nothing up and posted for this song, I wanted to learn it so here goes:

it s super easy acoustic.
No capo. Standard.

Where the piano is in the beginning i usually just pluck the strings until the full band comes in. But you can do whatever you want haha.

[Intro]

D A
I ve been thinking lately
G
About you and me
A
And all the questions left unanswered
D
How it all could be
A
And I hope you know
You never left my head
A
And if I ever let you down
I m sorry

Woah-ohh
Oh no, no, no...
Woah-ohh

[Verse 1]

I see you around here lately
You smile brighter than you should
And me I ve been so lonely
I m glad you re doing good
Cuz I can t forget the way it use to be
And if I ever let you down
Well I m sorry

[Chorus]

Woah-oh-oh-oh
No I can t let you...
Go-oh-oh-oh
And you know that you can...
Take all of me
I swear I will be

Better than before
So sing it back
Woah-oh-oh-oh
No I can't let you go

[Verse 2]

I'm sorry for the things I've done, things I've done
I'm sorry for the man I was
And how I treated you
I'm sorry for the things I've done, things I've done
I'm sorry for the man I was
And how I treated you

[Chorus]

Woah-oh-oh-oh
No I can't let you...
Go-oh-oh-oh
And you know that you can...
Take all of me
I swear I will be
Better than before
So sing it back
Woah-oh-oh-oh
No I can't let you go

[Outro]

I've been thinking lately
About you and me
And all the questions left unanswered
How it all could be
And I hope you know
You never left my head
And if I ever let you down
I'm sorry
