

Little Drunk Fists
Slobberbone

#-----PLEASE NOTE-----#
#This file is the author s own work and represents their interpretation of the song. You may # #Only use this file for private study, scholarship, or research.....#
From rogerh@dotcomnow.com June 18, 2001, Transcribed by Rogerh.....#

Little Drunk Fists By Slobberbone
Written by Brent Best From the Album: Barrel Chested www.slobberbone.com

This is one of my favorite songs on the album (heck, I love them all to be honest)

Intro:

D A D A D A G D

(D)Little drunk (A)fists across the (D)tip of my (A)chin (D)Guess I should have (A)known that they d (G)be there (D)again

(D)Little Drunk (A)fists across the (D)width of my(A) jaw (D)gets sometimes to where (A)I just don t feel them at (D)all

(G)That s (D)ok
(G)I can wait (D)another day (G)for these (D)stupid concessions to be (E)made (G)you weren t (D)to blame for (G)checkin johnny walker s (D)name on the (G)policeman s (D)notebook when (E)he came

Little drunk fists need some to their own went out to meet some friends but ended up all alone

Little drunk fists find and pick up the phone but fumble on the numbers when they try to dial home

That s ok
I can wait another day for these stupid concessions to be made You weren t to blame for checkin for johnny walker s name on the policeman s notebook when he came

Little drunk fists raised for just one more round end up buying six when the fifth hit the ground

Little baby fists touch my face, clutch my nose but they d rather touch their mothers but she don t know

Little drunk fists drove the car home last night turned left on oak street when they should have turned right