Em Em7 C Bsus4 Am
I ve seen death as it sneaked up behind you
Em C Bsus4
Patiently taking its aim
As it aimed for the spark in your eyes
Resistance from here looked so lame

C G Am Em
What used to scare me is not worth one thought
C G Bsus4
As i cling the memory of
Pitch black coffee and cigarette used
While i aimed for a smile on your face

I tried to sit straight up the side of your bed
And pour my thoughts straight down the drain
When it pours i d much rather get wet
Than to shelter my thoughts from the rain

While i chill my guitar to your amplified breath
And hum away thoughts of your death
All i got left is one awkward embrace
My last aim for a smile on your face
