And water in the stream
          D                  A                  C
And salt in the mine
          G                  D                  A                  C                  G
And an aching in me.

D          A          G D

Store some salt and wait the hour.

D                  A                  C
When thinking of love,
          G                  D                  A                  C                  G
Love is thinking for me
          D                  A                  C
And the baker will come
          G                  D                  A                  C                  G
