VERSE 3: (SAME AS VERSE 1)

Neighbor called my landlord
 It was a sunday afternoon
 She couldn t hear the tv set
 We were having a barbeque
 We were listening to Louis Prima
 And drinking Meisterbrau
 If she would have come and talked it over

And she wasn't a lazy cow
So she got bent and raised the rent
Said it would only take one more
Phone call from my whiny neighbor

VERSE 4: (SAME AS VERSE 2)

Maybe someday when I'm jaded
9 to 5 at a job I hate
I'll come home and razz my neighbors too
But I'd have a clever strategy
And catch them when the rent is late
And all the other bills are overdue
After all this is the neighborly way

CHORUS

BRIDGE:

E | -9-----

B | ---9-----

Don't even hide the dog

Or put the bong away

C#5

G#5

B5

We don't want to live here anyway

VERSE 5: (SAME AS VERSE 1)

Neighbor called my landlord
She said we didn't care
The lawn is dead
Dogs and cats are stinking everywhere
She said we had crazy parties every night
The yard is littered with bottles and cans
Skateboards and bikes
She didn't get bent
Didn't raise the rent
We only got a note
In 30 days we'll get the old heave ho
