

Bittersweet Symphony

Smash

This is the version of Bittersweet Symphony sung by Megan Hilty which was played on the TV show SMASH. This is probably my favorite cover of the song so I decided to figure out the chords for it. This is my first time but Iâ€™m about 90% certain that this is correct (I have a good ear lol). If Bm7 is a struggle Bm works fine as well. Good luck and enjoy =]

Capo on 4th fret.
