

It's Your Life
Smokie

G Em
Who said the web of life is woven in a dream Em

G Em
Cause your life is filled with dreams you can't believe Em

C D
So the only way you live with it is acting every scene Em

G
and you play the part so well, that you deceive Em

C D C D
Now and again you find you ain't got a friend

Who know, I come and I go,

Am Am9 D
but it's your life

Am Am9 D
It's your life

Am Am9 D
That's your life

G Em
though the world is overcrowded you still find an empty place Em

G Em C D
and I know he leaves you helpless and confused

G Em
and your search for love has often left you staring into space Em

G Em
Just another broken heart, so what's the use? Em

C D C D
How many times have I been so hard to find?

you know I come and I go,

Am Am9 D
but it's your life

Am Am9 D
It's your life

Am Am9 D
That's your life

G C
How does it feel when he's not around?

G C G
Can he be real when he can't be found nowhere?

G Em
who lit the flame upon the candle tonight?

G Em
and who let herself be led so easily?

G Em
and who let it burn until the early morning light

G Em
and in the early morning gave herself to me?

D
and so, at last, you know that

Am Am9 D
it s your life

Am Am9 D
Its your life

Am Am9 D
Thats your life
