

Harder Times
Snoop Dogg

D A Bm G
Look how hard mama work just trying to get by
 D A Bm G
And enough ghetto youth so they still want no get no bly
 D A Bm G
Just keep on the hustle â€™cause we have to stay pon the grind
 D A Bm
Donâ€™t give up on yo dreams â€™cause you know the sun will shine
 G A D
The sun will shine

Then the same chord progression all throughout the song
D-A-Bm-G x3 then D-A-Bm-G-A-D

Also there s a little riff that you can play in between the chords during the transition that goes

E-----0-3-2-----|
B-----|
G-----|
D-----|
A-----|
E-----|

and then there s another one that goes

E-----3-2-----|
B-----3-----|
G-----|
D-----|
A-----|
E-----|

I ll leave you the lyrics down here

Like a hon mama work just trying to get by (hey yea)
And enough get to you so they still want no get no bly (he he he)
Just keep on the hustle â€™cause we have to stay pon the grind (he he yea)
Donâ€™t give up on yo dreams â€™cause you know the sun will shine (he he he)
The sun will shine

Iâ€™m tired in the morning, too late at night
See mama scraping for nickles and dimes

On the salary sheâ€™s making we can barely survive
Tell me is these something greater in this life?

Wait, said mama
Patience, said mama
Breaking down is not an option
Make it happen somehow

Like a hon mama work just trying to get by (hey yea)
And enough get to you so they still want no get no bly (he he he)
Just keep on the hustle â€™cause we have to stay pon the grind (he he yea)
Donâ€™t give up on yo dreams â€™cause you know the sun will shine (he he he)
The sun will shine

How much more can my mama take?
Now Iâ€™ve got to step up to the play
Canâ€™t afford to make mistakes
Ainâ€™t no time to waste

Wait, said mama
Patience, said mama
Breaking down is not an option
Make it happen somehow

Like a hon mama work just trying to get by (hey yea)
And enough get to you so they still want no get no bly (he he he)
Just keep on the hustle â€™cause we have to stay pon the grind (he he yea)
Donâ€™t give up on yo dreams â€™cause you know the sun will shine (he he he)
The sun will shine

To hold in since, damn I make it so hard
From California straight to New York
From Chicago going straight to her yard
People everywhere, them everywhere, can I stry?
Canâ€™t get a piece so be fly your body borderline
Everywhere I go them facing much harder times
They know the grass feel greener pon the other side
But me still want see one we canâ€™t find

Like a hon mama work just trying to get by (hey yea)
And enough get to you so they still want no get no bly (he he he)
Just keep on the hustle â€™cause we have to stay pon the grind (he he yea)
Donâ€™t give up on yo dreams â€™cause you know the sun will shine (he he he)
The sun will shine
