B5 E5 A5
A little after twelve, the function suite was full
C#5 B5
With people I had never seen before

E5 A5
Ripped up ticket stubs, confetti ed on the floor
C#5 B5
It dawned on me Iâ€™d seen it all before

E5 A5
Cool your beans my son, you look a fucking mess
C#5 B5
No oneâ€™s getting out of here, tonight

E5 A5
Hit that button there, the one that just says wrong
C#5 B5
Weâ€™ll lose our lives through all our favorite songs

Bridge:
B5 E5/C#
Go forward to later you look light on your feet
E5 D5
When you whirled in the room I was nailed to my seat
B5 E5/C#
Iâ€™m like a prisoner getting ready to talk
E5 D5
I feel the blood in my hands and the threat in your walk

Chorus:
B5 E5/C#
And suddenly it lifts the roof off the place
E5 D5
That keeps a fault in my step, and a grin on my face
B5 E5/C#

It can't contain me but you needn't on me

E5

D5

Get me back in my box, and snap the branches off me

B5

E5

A5

A little after four, the function suite is dead

C#5

B5

And I am just a ripped up ticket stub

E5

A5

Here's a helping hand, a voice that's far too close

C#5

B5

And I am up and on my broken limbs
