Fm C# Fm Eb

I open my eyes, each morning I rise to find a true thought, I know that it s real

Fm C# Fm Eb

I m lucky to breathe, I m lucky to feel
I m glad to wake up, I m glad to be here

Fm C# Fm Eb

With all of this world, and all of it s pain, all of it s lies, and all of it s let down

Fm C# Fm Eb

I still feel a sense of freedom
So glad I m around

Fm C# Fm Eb

It s my freedom, can t take it from me
I know it, it won t change

Fm C# Fm Eb

But, we need some understanding
I know we ll be all right.

(2x)

All right

Fm C# Fm Eb

The day I am gone, and the day that I leave
I ll never regret one minute of life

Fm C# Fm Eb

I ve learned from the joy, I ve learned from the tears
I ve fought through the dark, now I see the light

Fm C# Fm Eb

Every tounge of everyone in every state, of every land

Fm C# Fm Eb

has everything to be thankful for

Fm C# Fm Eb

It s my freedom, can t take it from me
I know it, it won t change

Fm C# Fm Eb

but we need some understanding,
I know we ll be all right,

Fm C# Fm Eb

It s my freedom, can t take it from me,
I know it, it won t change

Fm C# Fm Eb

but we need some understanding

Fm C# Fm Eb

Cause I, I wait on you
Cause you wait on me, so I wait on you.

Fm C# Fm Eb

I open my eyes, each morning I rise
to find a true thought, know that it s real

Fm C# Fm Eb

I can t tell you how, you can t tell me why
But living my life, is all I care

Fm C# Fm Eb

The burden can be, sometimes bigger than me
Sometimes stronger than me, and hard to bare

Fm C# Fm Eb

But I couldn t care less, no stress cause
Jah put me here.

Fm C# Fm Eb

It s my freedom, can t take it from me

Fm C# Fm Eb

But, we need some understanding
I know we ll be all right.

Fm C# Fm Eb

It s my freedom, can t take it from me
I know it, it won t change

Fm C# Fm Eb

But, we need some understanding

Fm C# Fm Eb

I know you know
I wait on you
Cause you wait on me
So I wait on you
