        G# ////   C#////   C#////   C#////   C#////

   G#   C#
I asked what he was thinking but he hadn t much to say

     G#   C#
The revelry died down now, we d reached the break of day

     G#   C#
God knows it s not for glory, son, we just have to make some room

        G#   C#   C# ////
Oh, my heart would surely break for you, sweet treasure of my womb

     G#   Eb/F#   Fm   Fm   Eb   C# ////
With four and twenty shillings, we sent him on his way

       G#   Eb/F#   Fm   Eb   C# //
Now my blood runs through the mountains

     Eb   G#////   C#////   G#////   C#////
Of Far Americay

        G#   C#
From a Rocky Mountain mine camp came a message here tonight

          G#   C#
He says the mountain gives him hope these days to break the reach of night

   G#   C#
Says to tell the young ones that he seldom sees the moon

        G#   C#   C# //
But the noise would wake the dead out there, he ll send some money soon

       G#   Eb/F#   Fm   Fm   Eb   C#////
There s light down in those tunnels, Oh, it s gonna be okay

     G#   Eb/F#   FM   Eb C#//
My blood slips through the mountains

     Eb   Bbm G#/B C# Eb   G#////   Eb/F# G# Fm Eb////

    G#   C#
From a Rocky Moutain mine camp came a letter here today

     G#   C#
He says the winds of change are blowin a little warmer every day

     G#   C#
That he fell in love with liberty, a girl we all once knew

 Fm   Bbm   G#/B   C# ////
She comes from good people, and he said she loves him too

   G#   Eb/F#   Fm
That blood ran down those rivers

    Fm   Eb   C# ////
What a heavy price to pay

  G#   Eb/F#   Fm Eb
So far now from the ocean

C# Eb   Fm// Eb// C#//
In Far Americay

   Eb   Fm// Eb// C#///
In Far Americay

   C#   C#/B   Bbm   Eb   G#//// C#////
How young love it meanders through Far Americay

Repeat G//// and C //// many times until fade out
