F Bb
I asked what he was thinking but he hadn t much to say

F Bb
The revelry died down now, we d reached the break of day

F Bb
God knows it s not for glory, son, we just have to make some room

F Bb Bb ////
Oh, my heart would surely break for you, sweet treasure of my womb

F C/F# Dm Dm C Bb ////
With four and twenty shillings, we sent him on his way

F C/F# Dm C Bb //
Now my blood runs through the mountains

C F//// Bb//// F//// Bb////
Of Far Americay

F Bb
From a Rocky Mountain mine camp came a message here tonight

F Bb
He says the mountain gives him hope these days to break the reach of night

F Bb
Says to tell the young ones that he seldom sees the moon

F Bb Bb //
But the noise would wake the dead out there, he ll send some money soon

F C/F# Dm Dm C Bb////
There s light down in those tunnels, Oh, it s gonna be okay

F C/F# DM C Bb//
My blood slips through the mountains
