I asked what he was thinking but he hadn t much to say

F# B

The revelry died down now, we d reached the break of day

F# B

God knows it s not for glory, son, we just have to make some room

F# B B ////

Oh, my heart would surely break for you, sweet treasure of my womb

F# C#/F# Ebm Ebm C# B ////

With four and twenty shillings, we sent him on his way

F# C#/F# Ebm C# B //

Now my blood runs through the mountains

C# F#//// B//// F#//// B////

Of Far Americay

F# B

From a Rocky Mountain mine camp came a message here tonight

F# B

He says the mountain gives him hope these days to break the reach of night

F# B

Says to tell the young ones that he seldom sees the moon

F# B B //

But the noise would wake the dead out there, he ll send some money soon

F# C#/F# Ebm Ebm C# B////

There s light down in those tunnels, Oh, it s gonna be okay

F# C#/F# Ebm C# B //

My blood slips through the mountains
