Bb Eb
I asked what he was thinking but he hadn t much to say

Bb Eb
The revelry died down now, we d reached the break of day

Bb Eb
God knows it s not for glory, son, we just have to make some room

Bb Eb Eb ////
Oh, my heart would surely break for you, sweet treasure of my womb

Bb F/F# Gm Gm F Eb ////
With four and twenty shillings, we sent him on his way

Bb F/F# Gm F Eb //
Now my blood runs through the mountains

F Bb//// Eb//// Bb//// Eb////
Of Far Americay

Bb Eb
From a Rocky Mountain mine camp came a message here tonight

Bb Eb
He says the mountain gives him hope these days to break the reach of night

Bb Eb
Says to tell the young ones that he seldom sees the moon

Bb Eb Eb //
But the noise would wake the dead out there, he ll send some money soon

Bb F/F# Gm Gm F Eb////
There s light down in those tunnels, Oh, it s gonna be okay

Bb F/F# GM F Eb//
My blood slips through the mountains
