B E
I asked what he was thinking but he hadn t much to say

B E
The revelry died down now, we d reached the break of day

B E
God knows it s not for glory, son, we just have to make some room

B E E ////
Oh, my heart would surely break for you, sweet treasure of my womb

B F#/F# G#m G#m F# E ////
With four and twenty shillings, we sent him on his way

B F#/F# G#m F# E //
Now my blood runs through the mountains

F# B//// E//// B//// E////
Of Far Americay

B E
From a Rocky Mountain mine camp came a message here tonight

B E
He says the mountain gives him hope these days to break the reach of night

B E
Says to tell the young ones that he seldom sees the moon

B E E //
But the noise would wake the dead out there, he ll send some money soon

B F#/F# G#m G#m F# E////
There s light down in those tunnels, Oh, it s gonna be okay

B F#/F# G#M F# E//
My blood slips through the mountains
