INTRO:
(played on an organ)   A E x3   E arpeggio x3   Emaj6 x1

VERSE 1:
     E          C#m         G#m                         Bmaj7
When you gunna shake off the malaise I need you to be on,
   F#                                              E
 I need you strong for all the trouble that belongs to us
   E          Emaj6         G#m                         Bmaj7
 When you follow me through the maze, and im the one you know there will be
   F# false starts ,
                     E              E                          G#
 there will be malice and woe and the the exit starts to glow

CHORUS 1:
G#                      F#
Oil dirips from the vine
       Bbm                        C#m
And trickles down your fingers  As I take your little hand in mine
       G#            Fm          Bbm
And later with the scilence of the saints
           G#          Fm               C#         D#              G#
Said, nothins made to last these days but im gunna be by you, till my last
      Fm days
    C#          D#          G#           Fm
Nothins made to last these days
    C#            D#            F
Nothins made to last these days

INTERLUDE:
F arpeggio

VERSE 2:
   F         Fmaj6             Am                    Cmaj7
When you gunna shake off the malaise I need you to be on
         G                           F
I need you strong for All the trouble comin on A
And then the exit starts to glow

CHORUS 2:
A             F#m
Oh, bay stand tall

       Bm                                            D
The innocent time your in now aint so innocent after all
          A                F#m        Bm
But something around the golden age remains
           A                F#m
Said, nothins made to last these days
        Bm           E                    A            F#m
But im gonna be by you,  to my last days
      Bm              E
Nothins made to last these days

       A                F#m               Bm                        E(B the 7th time not E)
But im gonna be by you gunna be by you gunna be by you    x7
