She Paints Me Blue Something Corporate

Intro: C Am G F

Verse 1:

C C/B C/A

Tonight I watched the lights go out in your house

C/G C C/B

Wondering how I could get so deep

C/A C/G

And you could still get sleep

C C/B C/A

In vain I blame my trembling on the cold air

C/G C C/B

But I can t hide that I relied on you

C/A C/G

Like yellow does on blue

Chorus:

C Am

And you re my good feeling

G

I m kneeling

F

Inside a room she paints me blue

C Am

And you are my reason

G

for breathing

F

Inside a room

she paints me blue again

[Interlude, same as intro]

Verse 2:

C C/B C/A

Atlanta started raining on me

C/G

And teenage love was underground.

C/B C/A C/G

Tonight I ll break the surface

Atlanta started raining on me
But no young girl was claiming me or naming me
               C/B
And destiny gets nervous
Chorus:
And you re my good feeling
   G
I m kneeling
Inside a room she paints me blue
              Αm
And you are my reason
   G
for breathing
 F
Inside a room
she paints me blue again
Interlude: Am G Am G
G
Chorus:
                  Am
And you re my good feeling
I m kneeling
Inside a room she paints me blue
              Am
And you are my reason
   G
for breathing
Inside a room
she paints me blue again

                                           C/G
                               C/A
Atlanta started raining on me, on me
                          C/B
                                           C/G
Atlanta started raining on me, on me...

The chords on the last interlude can be a bit complicated (and sound a bit strange), but you know how the piano thing goes, I ll sure you ll get it right. :)
