

Are You An Old Hippie Sir
Son of a Plumber

Intro: G Em

Ba da ba ba ba
Ba da ba ba ba

G

Are you an old hippie, sir?
Are you an old hippie, sir?

Em

I sense you must have been around
Your painted wings have left the ground
A few times

G

Are you an old hippie, sir?
Are you an old hippie, sir?

Em

You hit that guitar pretty well
And all those words really gel
I can tell

C

D

Can I lay down some harmony?

C

D

Can I lay down some harmony?

C

D

Can I lay down some harmony?

G & Em

Ba da ba ba ba
Ba da ba ba ba

A

Are you an old hippie, sir?
Are you an old hippie, sir?

F#m

Yâ€™see that woman by the counter
She used to be my babysitter
Oh oh

D

E

Sheâ€™s an oh oh old hippie too

D

E

Sheâ€™s an oh oh old hippie too

D

E

Sheâ€™s an oh oh old hippie too
Yea, itâ€™s true