If investigation fails I m on my way...

When the coward sits alone again
When you ve spent your feathers up
Making sense is made impossible
Making you detect my aim
And when I m answering

I ve seen this before you are changing things
In a world that is borrowed only fools with narrow minds can join
How should I know?
The calls I make have numbers I don t trust

John let me go!
I can t conjugate myself
If investigation fails I m on my own...
